Welcome to Van Buren!

Things to Do on Main Street

Historic Main Street Trolley- (FREE-NO CHARGE) Select Wednesdays, Fridays, & Saturdays 930 AM till 5 PM
The trolley harkens back to the stylish streetcars of the 1800's with stops at the depot, the corners of 7th, 5th, 3rd and Main, as well as the Drennen-Scott Historic Site. The trolley runs on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday 10am to 4pm. It also picks up passengers at the additional parking lots on Webster & 6th and Webster & 8th.

UAFS Drennen Scott Historic Site- 221 N. 3rd St. Beautifully restored historic homes and gardens of Van Buren co-founder, John Drennen. Along with The Leonard Wilhaf Historical Home. Both sites are free and open to the public. For Hours of Operation: call 479-262-2750

Restrooms

There is a single unisex restroom at the depot. Additional restrooms are located at Blanche Moore Park in the 700 block of Main Street and at Freedom Park adjacent to the depot.

Shopping

Beautiful Main Street is home to a variety of wonderful shops. You will find antiques and boutiques, pottery, and home décor. After you find something for your home, be sure to stop at one of our shops and pamper yourself with soaps, scrubs and lotions, a good book and souvenirs to take home with you. You can even ship your packages back home from your memorable day right from Main Street if they won't fit in your car or on the train.

Freedom Park-
957 E Main Street

Pavilions with picnic tables, restrooms with changing areas, interactive water feature/splash pad (Memorial Day–Labor Day)

Veterans Memorial Plaza
